

T20

BRASIL

MIDTERM

CONFERENCE

A graphic element consisting of two stylized, overlapping arches made of colorful, flowing lines in shades of yellow, green, and blue, positioned behind the "T20" and "MIDTERM" text.

Let's rethink the world

2-3
JULY
RIO DE JANEIRO
BRASIL

Program

ORGANIZERS:

SPONSORED BY:

Content

PROGRAM - DAY 1

JULY 2nd

PROGRAM - DAY 2

JULY 3rd

Panelists' Bios

Click on the item to access the content

PROGRAM - DAY 1

JULY 2nd

Tuesday

WELCOME COFFEE AND ACCREDITATION

9:00 to 10:00 am BRT

OPENING CEREMONY

10:00 to 11:10 am BRT

Helena Tenorio

Director of Human Resources, IT and Operations Division
at the Brazilian Development Bank (BNDES)

José Pio Borges

Chairman of the Board of Trustees at the Brazilian Center for International Relations (CEBRI)

Marcia Loureiro

President at the Alexandre de Gusmão Foundation
(FUNAG)

Luciana Servo

President at the Institute for Applied Economic Research
(IPEA)

Lucas Padilha

Municipal Secretary of the Civil House of the City of Rio de Janeiro

PANEL 1

SUSTAINABLE CLIMATE ACTION AND ENERGY TRANSITIONS

11:10 am to 12:10 pm BRT

Clarissa Lins

Trustee at the Brazilian Center for International Relations (CEBRI) and Founding Partner of Catavento Consultoria

Moderator

Céline Kauffmann

Chief Programmes Officer at the Institute for Sustainable Development and International Relations (IDDRI)

Luciana Costa

Director of Infrastructure, Energy Transition and Climate Change at the Brazilian Development Bank (BNDES)

Maria Netto

Executive Director at the Institute for Climate and Society (ICS)

Ben Weisman

Executive Director for Capital Mobilization at the Glasgow Financial Alliance for Net Zero (GFANZ)

Online

André Corrêa do Lago

Secretary for Climate, Energy and Environment at the Brazilian Ministry of Foreign Affairs

BREAK 12:10 to 2:00 pm BRT

PANEL 2

INCLUSIVE DIGITAL TRANSFORMATION

2:00 to 3:00 pm BRT

André Clark

Trustee at the Brazilian Center for International Relations (CEBRI), Senior Vice President for Siemens Energy Latin America and Vice President of Siemens Energy Brazil

Moderator

Anirban Sarma

Deputy Director and Senior Fellow at the Observer Research Foundation (ORF)

Helena Tenorio

Director of Human Resources, IT and Operations Division at the Brazilian Development Bank (BNDES)

Christian Perrone

Director of Government Affairs at Microsoft Corporation Brazil

María Inés Baqué

Leader of Public Sector Government Transformation for Latin America at Amazon Web Services (AWS)

Francisco Gaetani

Extraordinary Secretary for the State Transformation at the Brazilian Ministry of Management and Innovation in Public Services

PANEL 3

REFORMING THE INTERNATIONAL FINANCIAL ARCHITECTURE

3:00 to 4:00 pm BRT

Lavínia Barros de Castro

Member of Strategic Affairs Committee at the Brazilian Development Bank (BNDES)

Moderator

Iyabo Masha

Director of the Intergovernmental Group of Twenty-Four on International Monetary Affairs and Development (G24)

Online

Marcos Caramuru

International Advisory Member at the Brazilian Center for International Relations (CEBRI)

Samya Paiva

Corporate Risk Manager at the Development Bank of Latin America and the Caribbean (CAF)

Laura Jaitman

Director of Multilateral Economic Affairs at the World Bank Group

Tatiana Rosito

Secretary for International Affairs at the Brazilian Ministry of Finance

PANEL 4

INTERNATIONAL TRADE AND INVESTMENT

4:00 to 5:00 pm BRT

Larissa Wachholz

Senior Fellow at the Brazilian Center for International Relations (CEBRI) and Partner at Vallya Participations

Moderator

Maarten Smeets

Fellow at the World Trade Institute (WTI) and Member of the Steering Committee at the Trade and Investment Research Network (TIRN)

Dan Ioschpe

Brasil Chair at Business Engagement Group of the G20 (B20) and Chairman of the Board of Directors at Ioschpe Maxion

Veronica Rezende Coelho

CEO at Equinor Brazil

Elisa Fraga

Deputy Secretary of Foreign Trade at the Brazilian Ministry of Development, Industry and Foreign Trade

PANEL 5

STRENGTHENING MULTILATERALISM AND GLOBAL GOVERNANCE

5:00 to 6:00 pm BRT

Elizabeth Sidiropoulos

Chief Executive at the South African Institute of International Affairs (SAIIA)

Moderator

Philani Mthembu

Executive Director at the Institute for Global Dialogue (IGD)

Izabella Teixeira

Trustee Emeritus at the Brazilian Center of International Relations (CEBRI), Member of the Administrative Council of The Brazilian Development Bank (BNDES). Co-Chair of the International Resource Panel of the United Nation Environment (IRP/UNEP)

Pamla Gopaul

Head of the Africa Policy Bridge Tank Programme at the African Union Development Agency (NEPAD)

Christopher da Cunha Bueno Garman

Managing Director for the Americas at Eurasia Group

Felipe Hees

Brazilian Sous-sherpa of the G20 at Brazilian Ministry of Foreign Affairs

CLOSING REMARKS

6:00 to 6:10 pm BRT

Marcos Azambuja

Trustee Emeritus at the Brazilian Center of International Relations (CEBRI)

PROGRAM - DAY 2

JULY 3rd

Wednesday

OPENING

10:00 to 10:30 am BRT

Luciana Servo

President at the Institute for Applied Economic Research (IPEA)

Maria João Rodrigues

President at the Foundation for European Progressive Studies (FEPS)

Renata Amaral

Secretary for International Affairs and Development at the Brazilian Ministry of Planning and Budget

10:30 to 10:45 am BRT

Esther Duflo

Professor at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT), Co-founder and Co-director at the Abdul Latif Jameel Poverty Action Lab (J-PAL) and Chair in Poverty and Public Policy at the Collège de France

Video

10:45 to 11:10 am BRT

Keynote speaker:

Flora Myamba

Executive Director of the Women and Social Protection Tanzania (WSP)

PANEL 6

FIGHTING POVERTY, HUNGER AND INEQUALITY

11:10 am to 12:10 pm BRT

Ana Costa

Deputy Director, Social-environmental Division (BNDES)

Moderator

Gala Díaz Langou

Executive Director at the Center for the Implementation of Public Policies to Promote Equity and Growth (CIPPEC)

Rafael Guerreiro Osório

Deputy Director of Studies and Social Policies at the Institute for Applied Economic Research (IPEA)

Stephen Devereux

Professorial Fellow at the UK Institute of Development Studies (IDS)

Online

Saulo Ceolin

General Coordinator for Food and Nutrition Security at the Brazilian Ministry of Foreign Affairs

SYNTHESIS OF RECOMMENDATIONS

12:10 to 12:45 pm BRT

Almir Nascimento

Director of the International Relations Research Institute (IPRI) of the Alexandre de Gusmão Foundation (FUNAG)

Moderator

Clara Brenck · TF01

Adjunct Professor at the Federal University of Minas Gerais (UFMG) and Associate Researcher at the Center for Research in Macroeconomics of Inequalities at University of São Paulo (Made/FEA-USP)

Maiara Folly · TF02

Executive Director and Co-founder of Plataforma CIPÓ

Ana Saggiaro Garcia · TF03

Researcher at BRICS Policy Center (BPC) and Professor at the Federal Rural University of Rio de Janeiro (UFRRJ)

Vera Thorstensen · TF04

Professor at São Paulo School of Economics of the Getulio Vargas Foundation (FGV/EESP) and Head of the Center for Global Trade and Investment (CCGI)

Bruno Bioni · TF05

Founding Director of the Data Privacy Brasil

Melina Risso · TF06

Research Director at the Igarapé Institute

DELIVERY OF T20 BRASIL COMMUNiqué TO REPRESENTATIVES FROM BRAZILIAN MINISTRIES OF FINANCE AND FOREIGN AFFAIRS, AND G20 SOCIAL

12:45 to 1:00 pm BRT

Antonio Cottas

Subsecretary for International Finance and Economic Cooperation at the Brazilian Ministry of Finance.

Felipe Hees

Brazilian Sous-sherpa of the G20 at the Brazilian Ministry of Foreign Affairs.

Gustavo Westmann

G20 Social/Special Advisor for International Affairs Secretariat General Presidency of the Republic of Brazil.

Tatiana Berringer

Coordinator of the Social G20 in the Finance Track at the Brazilian Ministry of Finance.

Panelists' Bios

OPENING CEREMONY

Helena Tenorio

Helena Tenorio is Director of HR, IT and Operations Division at the Brazilian Development Bank (BNDES). She has recently served as Head of the Operations and Microcredit Department and as Superintendent of the Communications and Institutional Relations Area at BNDES. Tenório was also Vice President of the New Club of Paris, a think tank on knowledge economy. She holds a degree in Economics and a master's degree in Economics from the Federal University of Rio de Janeiro (UFRJ), an MBA from the Federal University of Rio de Janeiro's Graduate Institute of Business Administration, and a postgraduate degree in Digital Transformation from PUC-Rio.

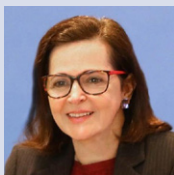

José Pio Borges

José Pio Borges is Chairman of the Board of Trustees at the Brazilian Center for International Relations (CEBRI), Member of the Board of Directors of Finvest and Member of the Strategic Council of Casa Firjan. He is Director of Casa Stefan Zweig in Petrópolis and President of the Council of Fundação Eva Klabin, among others. Pio Borges was President of the Brazilian National Bank for Economic and Social Development (BNDES), where he also served as Vice-President after holding several other positions. He has also served as President of Pronor Petroquímica, Director of BBM Bank and Board Member of Petrobras Directors, Cia. Vale do Rio Doce, Aracruz Celulose SA, COPESUL, Rede Ferroviária Federal AS, Banco do Nordeste do Brasil

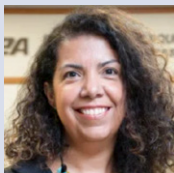

SA, USIMINAS, among others. Pio Borges holds a Master's degree in Economics from the New School for Social Research in New York, a Bachelor's degree in Mechanical Engineering and a Master's degree in Industrial Engineering from the Pontifical Catholic University of Rio de Janeiro. Pio Borges has received many honors and decorations, such as the Rodrigo Melo Franco de Andrade Award from Brazilian Institute of National Historic Preservation (IPHAN); the Grande Medalha da Inconfidência, from the State of Minas Gerais; Man of the Year in the National Scene, from the Rio de Janeiro Stock Exchange; Medal of Industrial Honor from the Federation of Industries of Rio de Janeiro (FIRJAN); Citizen of the State of Bahia, from the Bahia State Legislative Assembly; and the Sergio Gregory Medal of Honor from the Friends of the National Museum.

Marcia Loureiro

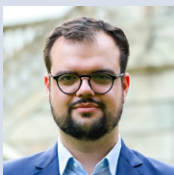

On July 12, 2021, Ambassador Marcia Loureiro was appointed as President of the Alexandre de Gusmão Foundation (FUNAG), which is affiliated to the Brazilian Ministry of Foreign Affairs. A career diplomat, she entered the Rio Branco Institute (IRBr) in 1985. She holds a Master of Science Degree in Foreign Service (1993) from the Edmund A. Walsh School of Foreign Service, Georgetown University, Washington-DC/USA. In Brazil, Ambassador Loureiro worked in the areas of trade promotion, science and technology, diplomatic planning, federative and parliamentary relations, economic organizations, and the fight against transnational crime. She was also a member of the National Organizing Committee of the Rio+20 Conference, and Head Advisor for International Affairs at the Ministry of Justice from 2015 to 2017. Abroad, she served at the Embassy in Lima, was Deputy Consul in Boston, Deputy Consul General in San Francisco, Deputy Head of Mission at the Embassy in Washington, and Consul General in Los Angeles from 2017 to 2021.

Luciana Mendes Santos Servo

Civil servant in the Institute for Applied Economic Research - Ipea since 1998, with the attributions of conducting research, evaluations and being a public policy advisor. She holds a PhD in Economics from the Federal University of Minas Gerais (Cedeplar/UFMG) and a Master's degree, also in Economics, from the University of São Paulo (FEA/USP), with specialization in health economics. Employed at the Institute since 1998, she has authored numerous studies on health financing and expenditure, healthcare accounts, monitoring and analysis of public health policies, labor market, and regional economics. She has conducted and coordinated evaluations, including those related to the Council for Monitoring and Evaluation of Public Policies (CMAP).

Lucas Padilha

Lucas Padilha is a lawyer specializing in economic law and international relations who graduated from the Getúlio Vargas Foundation's School of Law and School of Social Sciences in São Paulo. He is Municipal Secretary of the Civil House of Rio de Janeiro City Hall. He was Secretary for the Environment, Chief of Staff of the Civil House and Special Coordinator for International Relations at Rio de Janeiro City Hall and special advisor to the São Paulo State Department of Education. With a Master's degree in Law and Society from Peking University, where he was a Yenching Scholar, Padilha was a fellow of Legado, a leadership program devised by former President Fernando Henrique Cardoso, and is the first Brazilian in the Club de Madrid's network of young political leaders, the world's largest network of former heads of state and government.

PANEL 1

Clarissa Lins

Trustee at the Brazilian Center of International Relations (CEBRI). Clarissa Lins is the Founder of Catavento Consultoria, created in August 2013. From November 2019 to March 2021, Lins was President of the Brazilian Petroleum, Gas and Biofuels Institute (IBP), where she was also Executive Director between 2016 and 2019. She is a member of Suzano's Sustainability Committee since August 2019 and the World Economic Forum's Global Future Council on the Future of Energy since September 2018. She was a member of Petrobras's Board of Directors between May 2018 and December 2019, an independent member of the Sustainability Committee of Vale's Board of Directors between May 2017 and December 2019 and Executive Director of the Brazilian Foundation for Sustainable Development between 2004 and 2013. She worked in the public sector for several years, at the Ministry of Finance (1993-94), at Brazil's National Bank for Economic and Social Development (BNDES) as special advisor to the Presidency (1995-99) and at Petrobras, as special advisor to the Presidency and Executive Manager of Corporate Strategy (1999-2002). Lins obtained both her bachelor's and master's degrees in Economics from the Pontifical Catholic University of Rio de Janeiro (PUC-Rio).

Céline Kauffmann

Her mission is to support the continued development of IDDRI and help ensure its impacts and relevance through strategic guidance and planning, enhanced dialogue with stakeholders and international partnerships. Céline Kauffmann was previously at the OECD, where she started her career in 2001 and held various positions over the years as an economist and senior manager on a range of issues of relevance to sustainable development. In particular, she has led several policy-relevant initiatives, established stakeholder platforms, and held ministerial discussions, on greening the business sector, green investment, international governance, and water. In 2020-2023, she led the OECD Division on Entrepreneurship, SME and Tourism where she spearheaded work on greening SMEs, green entrepreneurship and sustainable finance. Previously, she was Deputy Head of the Regulatory Policy Division where she led work on international regulatory cooperation among others. Before that, she was responsible for green investment in the OECD Investment Division. She joined the OECD in 2001 to coordinate and author the African Economic Outlook – joint flagship report of the OECD Development Centre and the African Development Bank. Before the OECD, Céline Kauffmann contributed to the 2000 Transition Report of the European Bank for Reconstruction and Development. She also worked at the London School of Economics as research assistant. CK holds a PhD in economics from Université Paris I, Panthéon-Sorbonne.

Luciana Costa

Luciana has a degree in Economics from the State University of Campinas (Unicamp) and a master's degree in Finance from the Getulio Vargas Foundation (SP) and the University of Chicago in the United States. Before joining the BNDES, she worked for more than 25 years in the private financial market, at banks such as BankBoston, Citibank, ABN AMRO Real, Standard Bank and, most recently, at Natixis (Groupe BPCE), where she was the president of its subsidiary in Brazil.

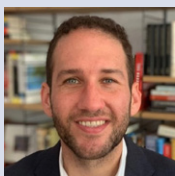

Maria Netto Schneider

Maria Netto is the Executive Director of the Institute for Climate and Society. She worked at the Inter-American Development Bank (IDB) as a Principal Specialist in Capital Markets and Financial Institutions, and at the New Development Bank (NDB) as Head of the Division of Financial Institutions and Markets. In both organizations, she was responsible for supervising programs of Innovative Financing Strategies with local financial institutions and capital markets to promote the financial inclusion and investments of the private sector in low carbon projects and resilience in the region of Latin America and the Caribbean, including in sectors of land use, low carbon agriculture, renewable energy and energy efficiency, resilient and sustainable infrastructure and urban mobility, among others. Maria Netto also worked previously at the United Nations Development Program (UNDP), where she was responsible for supervising global projects to support the capacity building of countries and civil society to assess investments and financial flows and policy options to integrate green business in different sectors and economic activities. Finally, Maria Netto worked for more than 10 years at the secretariat of the Convention on Climate Change (UNFCCC), where, among others, she was responsible for leading the work of the institution in bilateral and multilateral financial cooperation, for the evaluation and monitoring of investments and financial flows to address climate change and the development of carbon market mechanisms under the Kyoto protocol. She has a master's degree in economics from the Institute of International and Development Studies in Geneva.

Ben Weisman

Ben Weisman is Executive Director for Capital Mobilization at the Glasgow Financial Alliance for Net Zero (GFANZ), a global coalition of financial institutions committed to supporting the decarbonization of the global economy. He leads GFANZ's work on mobilizing private finance for the net-zero transition in emerging markets and developing economies, including supporting innovative models for public-private cooperation. He also helps lead the secretariat of the World Bank Private Sector Investment Lab on behalf of co-chair Mark Carney. Previously, he led work on innovation, sustainability, and inclusion in financial services at the World Economic Forum and was a management consultant at the Boston Consulting Group (BCG). He began his career at the Federal Reserve Bank of New York, where he covered emerging market financial sectors and worked on international policy strategy. Ben holds an MBA and a Masters in Public Policy from Harvard, and a BA in Public Policy and Environmental Studies from Princeton University.

André Corrêa do Lago

Born in 1959. He has a BSc in Economics from Universidade Federal do Rio de Janeiro (1981) and joined the Brazilian foreign service in 1982. As a career diplomat, he has held functions in different areas at headquarters, in Brasília: international organizations, trade promotion, protocol and energy. Abroad, he has been posted to the Brazilian Embassies in Madrid, in Prague, in Washington, in Buenos Aires and to the Brazilian Mission to the EU in Brussels. He has been working with the sustainable development agenda since 2001. He was the director of the Energy Department (2008-2011) and of the Environment Department (2011-2013) at the Brazilian Ministry of Foreign Affairs. In the latter period, he was Brazil's chief negotiator for climate change and for the Rio+20 Conference. He was the Brazilian ambassador to Japan (2013-2018), to India (2018-2023) and to Bhutan (2019-2023). Since March 2023, he is the Secretary for Climate, Energy and Environment at the Ministry of Foreign Affairs. Corrêa do Lago is the author of several books and articles on sustainable development and climate change, as well as on architecture.

PANEL 2

André Clark

André Clark is Senior Vice President of Siemens Energy in Latin America, Vice President of Siemens Energy Brasil, Siemens Gamesa CEO for the Onshore business in Latin America and Managing Director for Siemens Gamesa in Brazil, having previously been President and CEO of Siemens Brazil and also CEO of ACCIONA for Brazil, Bolivia, Uruguay and Paraguay. André was born in São Paulo and began his career in the Pulp & Paper industry in 1995. With 17 years of experience in Energy, Oil & Gas, Manufacturing, Logistics and Infrastructure segments, André holds a degree in Chemical Engineering from the University of São Paulo (USP) and an MBA in Finance and Operations Management from Stern School of Business, New York University. With an active role in leading associations and entities from different business segments, he is present in the most important discussions about Brazil. André is President of the Administrative Council of the Brazilian Association of Infrastructure and Basic Industries (ABDIB); Vice-president of the Plenary Board of the Brazilian Association of Machinery and Equipment (ABIMAQ); Member of the Business Council of the Economic Group formed by Brazil, Russia, India and China (BRICS); Member of the Leaders Committee of the National Confederation of Industries and of the Leaders Committee of Business Mobilization for Innovation (CNI / MEI); Member of the Board of Trustees and Senior Fellow of the Infrastructure Nucleus (CEBRI); Member of the Advisory Board of GRI Club Brasil; Member of the Superior Council of the International Chamber of Commerce (ICC); Member of Leadership Council of Brazilian Business Council for Sustainable Development (CEBDS); Member of the Superior Council of Innovation and Competitiveness (CONIC) of Federation of Industries of the State of São Paulo (FIESP).

Anirban Sarma

Anirban Sarma is a Deputy Director and Senior Fellow at the Observer Research Foundation, India. He is presently the Lead Co-Chair of the T20 Brazil Taskforce on 'Inclusive Digital Transformation', and was earlier a Chair of the T20 India Task Force on 'Our Common Digital Future'. Anirban's work focuses on the use of technology for sustainable development, the digital economy, and the media. His research has explored issues around digital public infrastructure, data governance, digital health, online safety, and women's empowerment, among other areas. Anirban was previously the Chief International Outreach and Communications Officer at the National Digital Library of India. He earlier served at UNESCO for nearly a decade, managing the organization's initiatives on ICTs, access to information, and media development across South Asia.

Christian Perrone

Jurist, Fulbright researcher (Georgetown University, USA), Doctor (UERJ) with a focus on international regulation and technology. Holds an LL.M. in International Law from the University of Cambridge (UK) and a Diploma in International Human Rights Law from the European University Institute (EUI, Italy). Served as Secretary of the Inter-American Juridical Committee of the OAS and as a Human Rights Specialist at the Inter-American Commission and Court of Human Rights, in addition to being Head of Rights and GovTech at ITS Rio (Institute of Technology and Society of Rio de Janeiro) and Fellow of the Datasphere Initiative. Currently, he is Director of Government Affairs at Microsoft, Brazil.

María Inés Baqué

María Inés is the public sector government transformation lead for Latin America in AWS. As part of a global team of professionals with experience in leading modernization processes at national scale, she helps governments to accelerate their digital reforms. Before coming to AWS, she served as Secretary of Digital Government and Technology Innovation in Argentina from 2016 to 2019, where she coordinated the Digital Agenda 2030 and led the transformational efforts in the areas of digital services, digital inclusion, open government, open data, digital identity, and new technologies adoption. Throughout her 30 years in the private sector, mainly in IT and the financial services industries, she developed strong competencies in process reengineering, startups, IT management, outsourcing, and business process operations in companies like Microsoft, HP, EDS, Metropolitan Life, and HSBC. As a promoter of women's empowerment, she participates actively in organizations like Vital Voices, Marianne, and Mujeres Líderes de América. In 2018, she was the co-chair of G20 Digital Economy Taskforce for Gender Inclusion that issued the Bridging the Digital Gender Divide report. María Inés has a bachelor's degree in Information Technology from the Universidad Nacional de Buenos Aires. She was distinguished in 2020 as one of 20 exceptional GovTech Leaders by Innovation Lab, Tel Aviv. In 2019, she received recognition from Women Corporate Directors for her remarkable career path, and in 2018 she was included as one of "The World's 100 Most Influential People in Digital Government." María Inés is a mother of two, and in her free time she enjoys reading, traveling, entertaining, and cooking for friends and family.

Francisco Gaetani

Francisco Gaetani is the Extraordinary Secretary for State Transformation at Brazil's Ministry of Management and Innovation in Public Services (MGI). Gaetani has also served as Executive Secretary in the Ministry of the Environment and held various high-level positions in the Ministry of Planning. At the United Nations Development Programme (UNDP), he was responsible for the governance area and the general coordination of UNDP actions in Brazil. His extensive experience in public administration includes serving on the Boards of Directors for major Brazilian institutions, such as Banco do Brasil and BNDES. Gaetani is a permanent professor at Instituto Rio Branco and teaches at the Getulio Vargas Foundation's Brazilian School of Public and Business Administration.

PANEL 3

Lavinia Barros de Castro

Lavinia Barros de Castro has a PhD in Economics (2009) and a PhD in Social Sciences. Dr. Lavinia Barros de Castro has been an Advisor to the BNDES presidency, a member of the Strategic Affairs Commission since March 2023, and a member of the Global Research Network for Public Development Banks. Before this, she had a long-standing career at the Brazilian Development Bank, working in strategic planning and scenarios, risk management, sustainable energy, and exports. Her research areas include development finance, financial regulation, development banks, long-term scenarios, and the Brazilian Economy. Her role in organizing several seminars and publications at BNDES underscores her collaboration for shaping public policies and strategies. She also has extensive teaching experience. As the author and co-organizer of many books and articles, she has received several prizes, including the Brazilian Jabuti Book Prize. She holds a PhD in Economics (2009) and a PhD in Social Sciences (2006—Sandwich Ph.D. D Program at Berkeley University of California).

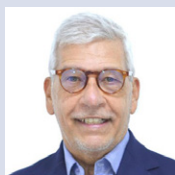

Iyabo Masha

Dr. Iyabo Masha is the Director of the Intergovernmental Group of Twenty-Four on International Monetary Affairs and Development (G-24) since March 2023. Prior to this, she had a long-standing career at the International Monetary Fund, Washington DC, negotiating IMF lending programs and developing non-program policies for emerging market and developing economies. She also served as IMF Resident Representative for Sierra Leone. Dr. Masha joined the IMF from the Central Bank of Nigeria in 2003, and she was a member of Nigeria's 8 - person Presidential Economic Advisory Council which directly advises the President on economic policy during 2019-2021. She has authored and contributed to several publications on macroeconomic policies, and she speaks regularly to diverse audiences on topical issues. She holds a Ph.D. in Economics from the American University, Washington DC.

Marcos Caramuru

Caramuru is a Member of the International Advisory Board of the Brazilian Center for International Relations (CEBRI). Marcos Caramuru de Paiva, partner and member of KEMU (Shanghai) Consultancy, is a former Brazilian diplomat with a long experience in finance. Having lived in Asia from 2004 to the end of 2019, he was Ambassador in Beijing (2016-2018), Consul General in Shanghai (2008-2011) and Ambassador in Malaysia and Brunei (2004-2008). In his previous professional trajectory, he was Chairman of the Financial Intelligence Unit in Brazil (2003), Vice-Minister of Finance for International Affairs (1996-2002) and Executive Director at the World Bank in Washington DC (1993-1996). Marcos de Paiva is a member of the International Board of the Brazilian Center for International Relations (CEBRI) and a Counselor of the Brazilian section of the Brazil-China Business Council. Marcos Caramuru de Paiva kept for a few years in the past a column at the Brazilian newspaper Folha de São Paulo, in which he wrote regularly about China and Asia. Nowadays he contributes occasionally to newspapers and academic publications. He is also a frequent speaker at seminars both in China and Brazil. Marcos Caramuru de Paiva holds a B.A in Administration from the Federal University of Rio de Janeiro. He also holds the undergraduation and the High-Level Course diplomas from the Brazilian Diplomatic Academy (Institute Rio Branco).

Samya Paiva

Samya Paiva is Corporate Risk Manager at the Development Bank of Latin America (CAF), a role in which she provides an innovative and pragmatic approach to risk and capital management. Her extensive international career includes roles such as Regional Executive Director at Zurich Insurance, Risk Manager at Banco PAN, and key risk management positions at Itaú-Unibanco and Banco Santander Madrid. She also led strategic projects at Banco Sudameris Paris. Samya holds two postdoctorates in Medical Physics and Physics applied to Economics, and a Ph.D. in Physics from USP. She is recognized for her expertise in regulatory issues, collaborating with Central Banks on Basel Framework implementations, and pioneering internal models for Capital Calculation in Brazil.

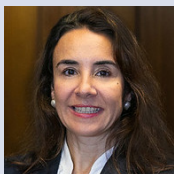

Laura Jaitman

Laura Jaitman is an economist interested in international economics, development economics, and the economics of crime. She is the World Bank Group Special Representative to the United Nations. She is also Research Associate at the Centre for Economic Performance (London School of Economics). She has been Head of International Affairs, State Secretary, at the Ministry of the Treasury of Argentina until 2019. In this role she was responsible for the representation of Argentina in international economic fora, and for international relations at the Treasury. She joined the Treasury in 2017 as G20 Finance Deputy to lead the Finance Track under the Argentine G20 Presidency. Previously she was an Economist at the Research Department of the Inter-American Development Bank (IDB), and has worked for J-PAL, and as consultant for the World Bank and the IDB on the evaluation of public policies in Latin America and the Caribbean. Laura holds a Ph.D. in Economics from University College London, UK. Her work was published in international peer reviewed journals such as the Economic Journal, and the Journal of Economic Behavior and Organization, among others, and featured in international media.

Tatiana Rosito

Brazilian economist and senior diplomat with over 25 years of experience in the public sector and international organizations. She worked for more than twelve years in Asia, where she was Senior Consultant at the New Development Bank in Shanghai (2020-2022) and Chief Representative of Petrobras in China and General Manager of Business Development in Asia (2017- 2019). Prior to that, she was Minister Counselor at the Brazilian Embassy in Beijing (2009- 2014) and Counselor at the Brazilian Embassy in Singapore (2006-2009), with a primary role in the commercial and economic-financial areas. In Brazil (2014-2107), she was Executive Secretary of the Foreign Trade Chamber of the Presidency of the Republic (CAMEX) and Special Advisor to the Ministers of Planning and Finance. At the Ministry of Finance, she worked together with other areas of government and the private sector to define the Brazilian NDC in the context of climate change negotiations that culminated in the Paris Agreement (2015). Previously, she was Advisor to the Chief Minister of the Civil House (1999-2002). As a Brazilian delegate to the United Nations (2003-2004), she served on the Second Committee (economic-financial issues), representing Brazil in negotiations related to the then Millennium Development Goals, development financing, combating poverty, South- South cooperation, international financial system and UN executive agencies. Tatiana is a Senior Fellow at the Brazilian Center for International Relations (CEBRI) - where she created and coordinated the China Analysis Group -, a member of the Consultative Committee of the China-Brazil Business Council (CBBC) and a member of the Wong MNC Centre Advisory Board. She holds a master's degree in International Development from the Harvard Kennedy School and an Executive MBA from INSEAD and Tsinghua University. She graduated in economics from UFRJ and took a specialization course at UnB.

PANEL 4

Larissa Wachholz

Business executive and institutional relations professional with over fifteen years of experience. Partner at Vallya Participações. Lived in Beijing from 2008 to 2013. Works in infrastructure, energy, and agribusiness. Served as Special Advisor to the Minister of Agriculture of Brazil between 2019 and 2021, where she established the “China Program”. Obtained her Master’s degree in Contemporary Chinese Studies from Renmin University of China, with experiences at the London School of Economics and Peking University. Contributes regularly to the press, think tanks, and academia. Senior Fellow for Asia Program at CEBRI (Brazilian Center for International Relations), where she coordinates the China Analysis Group. Co-founder and former vice president of IRELGOV (Institute of Government Relations).

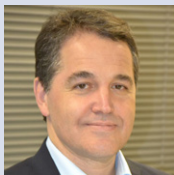

Maarten Smeets

Dutch national, is Guest Professor at Shanghai University of International Business and Economics (SUIBE), China, the University of International Business and Economics (UIBE), Beijing. He was associate professor at St Petersburg State University (2021-2023), Russia. He is a non-resident senior fellow at the World Trade Institute (Bern, Switzerland), senior associate at the Clingendael Academy (Den Haag, Netherlands), a fellow of the Institute for Globalization and International Regulation (Maastricht University, Netherlands). He is a member of the steering committee of the G-20 Trade and Investment Research Network (TIRN), a senior advisor to the WTO Chairs at the SUIBE (Shanghai) and UIBE (Beijing), the WTO Chair at the Foreign Trade University (FTU, Hanoi, Vietnam), the National University (UNA) in Costa Rica, the University of World Economy and Diplomacy (UWED, Tashkent, Uzbekistan), National University (NUL) in Lesotho, as well as to ARTNeT (UNESCAP). He is a consultant for USAID to Uzbekistan and Central Asia and a consultant under an EU funded program supporting the accession of Azerbaijan to the WTO. He managed the WTO Chairs Program (WCP) at the World Trade Organization, Geneva, Switzerland, working with leading scholars and think tanks from around the world. He chaired the WCP's Advisory Board Meetings. He headed a section at the WTO's Institute for Training and Technical Co-operation (ITTC), designing, coordinating and implementing field-based trade capacity building programs. He advises senior government officials and policy makers on trade. He teaches trade and trade policy courses at Universities on all continents. He is a frequent speaker and moderator at international conferences and organizes webinars on current WTO's trade negotiations and reforms. He has published in leading journals and authored, edited, co-edited and (peer-) reviewed books on current trade issues (WTO reforms, digital trade, inclusive growth, trade policy and globalization, sanctions, WTO accession, structural reforms, AfCFTA, developing countries, plurilateral trade agreements). He is the founder and manager of the PJ Smeets Prize award recognizing annually the best students at Cape Town University. He was a member of several boards, including the IMF led Joint Vienna Institute (JVI). He holds a PhD from the Faculty of Law (Maastricht University), a master degree in economics, finance and international trade (Tilburg University), and degrees from the Graduate Institute (Geneva) and the Ecole Nationale d'Administration (ENA-Paris).

Dan Ioschpe

Dan Ioschpe is Chairman of the Board of Directors at Ioschpe Maxion and a member of the Board of Directors at WEG, Marcopolo, and Embraer. He is also Vice-President of the Federation of Industries of the State of São Paulo (FIESP) and a member of the Board of Directors of Sindipeças. Born in Porto Alegre in 1965, Ioschpe holds a bachelor's degree in social communication from the Federal University of Rio Grande do Sul, a postgraduate degree in Marketing from ESPM - SP, and an MBA from the Tuck School of Dartmouth College (USA).

Veronica Rezende Coelho

Veronica Rezende Coelho is a Senior Vice President, currently in Brazil heading the Equinor Brazil organization. In this capacity, Coelho advises Equinor's Executive Management on a broad range of strategic issues, aiming at safe and profitable business for the group in the region. Coelho has been with Equinor for about 17 years, with a variety of positions in Brazil and at the Headquarters in Norway. Prior to joining Equinor, Coelho was a Senior Manager at Deloitte Consulting, specialized in the Brazil Oil and Gas regulatory & fiscal framework. As such, Coelho worked with various clients in the O&G value chain to build and execute business strategies for their Brazil operations, advisory on commercial matters and insight on strategic topics. Coelho received a B.S. in Business Management from the Fluminense Federal University in Rio de Janeiro and specialized in Financial and Commercial Regulations for International Business Transactions.

Elisa de Ananias Fraga

Deputy Secretary for Foreign Trade at the Ministry of Development, Industry and Foreign Trade (MDIC). At MDIC, she negotiated trade and investment agreements with Mercosur and other regional and extra-regional partners. He also worked in the Trade Defense Department and the CAMEX Executive Secretariat. At the Ministry of Planning, she coordinated the foreign trade area. At the Ministry of Economy, she was head of the technical advisory department of the Special Secretariat for Foreign Trade and International Affairs. During Brazil's presidency of the G20 in 2024, she will coordinate the MDIC's participation in the foreign trade discussions of the G20 Trade and Investment Working Group. A federal civil servant, Elisa Fraga joined the Foreign Trade Analyst career in 2023. She has a law degree from UFMG and a specialization and master's degree in International Relations from UnB.

PANEL 5

Elizabeth Sidiropoulos

Elizabeth Sidiropoulos is the chief executive of the South African Institute of International Affairs, which she has led since 2005. Her areas of expertise lie in South African foreign policy, Africa and external powers, global governance and south-south cooperation. Her most recent publications include co-edited volumes on Values, Interests and Power: South African Foreign Policy in Uncertain Times (2020), and The Palgrave Handbook of Development Cooperation for Achieving the 2030 Agenda (2021). Her other work includes the rise of new development cooperation providers and the institutionalization of their assistance, which were explored in two edited volumes, Development cooperation and emerging powers: New Partners or Old Patterns (Zed Books, 2012) and Institutional Architecture and Development: Responses from Emerging Powers (Jacana, 2015). She is the editor-in-chief of the South African Journal of International Affairs, a policy-oriented, peer-reviewed and interdisciplinary forum for discussion on Africa's and South Africa's international affairs. She is a regular commentator in South African and foreign media. Elizabeth is a member of the board of the Network of Southern Think Tanks and co-convenor of the Think 20 Africa Standing Group, established in 2017 during the German presidency of the G20. She currently serves on the International Advisory Board of Brazil's T20 Secretariat as well as on the UN's High-Level Advisory Board on Economic and Social Affairs.

Philani Mthembu

Dr. Philani Mthembu is Executive Director at the Institute for Global Dialogue, an independent foreign policy think tank based in Tshwane (Pretoria), South Africa. Prior to joining the IGD, he pursued a joint doctoral programme (Dr. rer. pol.) with the Graduate School of Global Politics, Freie Universität Berlin (Germany), and the School of International Studies at Renmin University, Beijing (China). The focus of his dissertation was on the rise of emerging powers as sources of development cooperation in Africa, for which he was awarded Magna Cum Laude. He co-founded the Berlin Forum on Global Politics (BFoGP), a non-profit organization dedicated to the promotion of academic, expert and public understanding of global politics. While completing his Masters in International Relations at the University of the Witwatersrand, Johannesburg, he headed the Academic Development Programme for first-year students and was elected as the first independent candidate to the Student Representative Council (SRC). His recent publications include a single authored book titled 'China and India's Development Cooperation in Africa: The Rise of Southern Powers', and co-edited books titled 'From MDGs to Sustainable Development Goals: The Travails of International Development', 'Africa and the World: Navigating Shifting Geopolitics', 'Africa-China Cooperation: Towards an African Policy on China?', and 'South African Foreign Policy Review Volume 4: Ramaphosa and a New Dawn for South African Foreign Policy'.

Izabella Teixeira

Trustee Emeritus at the Brazilian Center of International Relations (CEBRI). Former Minister of Environment (2010-2016). She is also Co-Chair of the International Resource Panel of the UN Environment (IRP/UNEP), member of the High Level Advisory Board of UN-DESA and of the Administrative Council of The Brazilian Development Bank (BNDES). Throughout her career, Izabella Teixeira held different administrative positions in the Ministry of Environment, in the Rio de Janeiro State Government and in IBAMA, where she joined in 1984. She played a key role in the negotiation of the Paris Agreement and was appointed, in 2012, to serve on the High-Level Panel of Eminent Persons for the Post-2015 Development Agenda. In 2013, she won the UN Environment's "Champions of the Earth" Global Award for her contribution to reducing deforestation in the Amazon. She holds a Master's degree in Energy Planning and a PhD in Environmental Planning from COPPE/UFRJ.

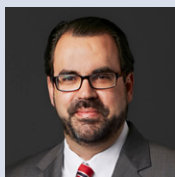

Pamla Gopaul

Pamla Gopaul is the Head of the Africa Policy Bridge Tank Programme at the African Union Development Agency-NEPAD, Economic Analysis and Foresight Unit. In this role, she oversees strategic planning and effective program implementation. With a distinguished background as a Senior Policy Officer and Coordinator to the CEO, Ms. Gopaul aligns the organization's strategic plan with program execution. Beyond her work at the African Union, she contributes to various initiatives, serving as a Policy

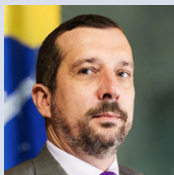

Advisory Sub-Committee Member for Global Citizen and an associate of the Women in Finance Network. Her global expertise extends to roles such as a senior fellow at the South Asian Institute for Advanced Research & Development (SAIARD) and co-leader of the 2023 T20/G20 Taskforce sub-committee. She also represents AUDU-NEPAD at the G20 Development Working Group and holds a stewardship role for the Global Alliance for Life Economy on Research and Innovation — an initiative endorsed by the G20 India Presidency and adopted by the Brazilian Presidency.

Christopher da Cunha Bueno Garman

Chris Garman researches topics related to macroeconomic management and its political impacts in emerging markets and comparative studies on national elections, with a focus on Latin America. He also leads Eurasia's coverage of Brazil, and has been instrumental both in guiding the analysis of the scenarios and consequent impacts of the global coronavirus pandemic and the Ukraine war, and in analyzing the unfolding of possible scenarios in the 2022 elections. Before joining Eurasia Group, Chris was a senior political analyst at Tendências Consultoria Integrada, one of Brazil's leading economic consultancies. He has also received fellowships from the Institute of Economic, Social and Political Studies of São Paulo (IDESP), where he researched the politics of Central Banks in the region, and from the Center for the Study of Contemporary Culture (CEDEC), where he led field research on Brazilian federalism. Christopher holds a master's degree in Political Science from the University of California, San Diego, and a bachelor's degree from Grinnell College. He is fluent in Portuguese and proficient in Spanish, and has dual Brazilian and American citizenship.

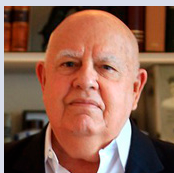

Felipe Hess

He has a degree in Economics from the State University of Campinas - UNICAMP (1993), a master's degree in Economics from the State University of Campinas - UNICAMP (1996) and a doctorate in History from the University of Brasília - UnB (2014). He has been a diplomat since 1998. He served at the Brazilian Mission to the World Trade Organization (WTO) in Geneva (2003 to 2007 and 2014 to 2017), at the Brazilian Embassy in Australia (2007 to 2009) and at the Brazilian Embassy in Beijing (2019 to 2020). In Geneva, he was a negotiator in the areas of anti-dumping, subsidies, countervailing measures, safeguards, agriculture and SPS. He also negotiated services, investments and e-commerce in Mercosur, the FTAA, negotiations with the European Union and the WTO. At the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, he headed the division responsible for trade negotiations with Egypt, Jordan and Morocco, among others; he was director of the United States department and chief of staff of the General Secretariat for Foreign Affairs. He was director of the Trade Defense Department (DECOM) of the Ministry of Development, Industry and Foreign Trade (MDIC). He has published several academic articles on trade defense and Brazilian history. He has also published books on trade defence and acted as a panelist in the WTO dispute settlement mechanism. He worked in the Special Office for International Affairs of the Special Secretariat for Strategic Affairs of the Presidency of the Republic. He was currently Special Secretary for External Relations in the Civil House of the Presidency of the Republic. He is currently the sous sherpa of the G-20.

CLOSING REMARKS

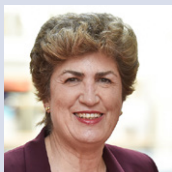

Marcos Azambuja

Marcos Azambuja is Trustee Emeritus at the Brazilian Center for International Relations (CEBRI). He served as Ambassador of Brazil to Argentina (1992-1997) and France (1997-2003), as well as Head of Brazil's Delegation for Disarmament and Human Rights Affairs in Geneva (1989-1990). He was Coordinator of the United Nations Conference on Environment and Development (Rio 92 Earth Summit). At the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, he served as Secretary-General (Deputy Minister), having previously served in London, Mexico City and New York (at the United Nations). He was a Member of the Commission on Weapons of Mass Destruction and the Tokyo Forum for Nuclear Non-Proliferation and Disarmament. Ambassador Azambuja is currently a member of the Brazilian Historical and Geographic Institute (IHGB), the Institute of National Historical and Artistic Heritage (IPHAN) and the Roberto Marinho Foundation.

OPENING

Maria João Rodrigues

Minister for Employment in PM Antonio Guterres' first government, is a politician with a long track record in all the European institutions: presidencies of the EU, European Council, Council of Ministers, European Commission and, more recently, the European Parliament. She is currently President of the European Foundation for Progressive Studies (EFPS), elected by the national foundations of the various European countries. Between 2014 and 2019, she was a member of the European Parliament and Vice-President of the S&D Group, the second most important in the EP, in charge of general coordination and interface with the other EU institutions. She played an important role in several European Initiatives such as: the Lisbon Treaty, the Lisbon Strategy and Europe 2020 (the European agenda for growth and jobs), the reform of the Eurozone, the interface with the EU's strategic partners, the roadmap for the future of Europe and, more recently, the European Pillar of Social Rights.

Renata Amaral

Renata Vargas Amaral is Secretary of International Affairs and Development of the Ministry of Planning and Budget. PhD from the University of Maastricht (Netherlands), PhD in Law and Bachelor of Law from the Federal University of Santa Catarina (Brazil) and Master in International Trade from the Complutense University of Madrid (Spain).

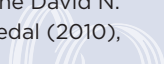

Lawyer, with more than 17 years of extensive experience in multilateral organizations, bilateral and regional trade negotiations, international commercial disputes and commercial policy. Founder of Women Inside Trade (WIT), an international NGO of professional women in international trade present in several countries. She is an Adjunct Professor at the American University Washington College of Law (AUWCL). She has served as a member of the Private Sector Committee of the Chamber of Foreign Commerce (CONEX/CAMEX), as Head of International Trade and Goods Regulatory Practices of the Inter-American Coalition for Regulatory Convergence of the Medical Device Sector, as well as a member of the Researchers Hub in World Trade Organization Gender.

Esther Duflo

Esther Duflo is the Abdul Latif Jameel Professor of Poverty Alleviation and Development Economics in the Department of Economics at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, co-founder and co-director of the Abdul Latif Jameel Poverty Action Lab (J-PAL) and Chaire, Pauvreté et politiques publiques at the Collège de France. In her research, she seeks to understand the economic lives of the poor, with the aim to help design and evaluate social policies. She has worked on health, education, financial inclusion, environment and governance. Professor Esther Duflo's first degrees were in history and economics from Ecole Normale Supérieure, Paris. She subsequently received a Ph.D. in Economics from MIT in 1999. Duflo has received numerous academic honors and prizes including 2019 Sveriges Riksbank Prize in Economic Sciences in Memory of Alfred Nobel (with co-Laureates Abhijit Banerjee and Michael Kremer), the Princess of Asturias Award for Social Sciences (2015), the A.SK Social Science Award (2015), Infosys Prize (2014), the David N. Kershaw Award (2011), a John Bates Clark Medal (2010), and a MacArthur “Genius Grant” Fellowship (2009). With Abhijit Banerjee, she wrote Poor Economics: A Radical Rethinking of the Way to Fight Global Poverty, which won the Financial Times and Goldman Sachs Business Book of the Year Award in 2011 and has been translated into more than 17 languages, and Good Economics for Hard Times. Duflo is a member of the National Academy of Sciences and a Corresponding Fellow of the British Academy.

Flora Myamba

Flora Myamba is a Senior Specialist for Social Protection and Gender, based in Tanzania. She leads the Women and Social Protection Tanzania as Founding Director. She has over 16 years of experience in research, evaluations, trainings, and development of policies in social protection, gender, and women’s economic empowerment in Tanzania, Africa and beyond. She is a Master Trainer for TRANSFORM Leadership Training on Social Protection Floors for African Governments. She collaborates with local and international organizations and sits in multiple local and international research and programs advisory boards. She has over 40 publications in local and reputable International Journals including Oxford Development Studies, Cambridge University Press, Global Social Policy, and African Development Review.

PANEL 6

Ana Costa

She is currently Superintendent of the Social Development and Public Management Area at the BNDES, responsible for developing actions in rural and urban productive inclusion, education and qualification, support for public investment projects aimed at social infrastructure, climate adaptation and mitigation, modernization of public management to improve and expand access to public services, historical and cultural heritage, and regional development. She has worked at the BNDES since 1998, with 20 years of executive experience, having worked on innovation, the capital goods and mobility industry, trade and services, the circular economy, the solidarity economy, microcredit, popular cooperatives, modernizing the administration of public entities, children and adolescents at social risk, among others. Producing knowledge and financing public, private and third sector ventures. She was a board member of Springs Global and Coteminas, a member of the Board of Directors of the Industry 4.0 Chamber, the Innovation Advisory Board of Sindipeças and the Board of the Brazilian Industrial Development Agency (ABDI). Since 2023, she has been a member of the Interministerial Committee for the Socioeconomic Inclusion of Waste Pickers of Reusable and Recyclable Materials - CIISC. She has a degree in economics from UERJ, a master's degree in urban and regional planning from the Institute for Urban and Regional Planning and Research (IPPUR) at UFRJ, a MSc in International Management from Lancaster University Management School and the International Masters Program for Managers (IMPM), an MBA from Coppead/UFRJ, and is a PhD candidate in the Postgraduate Program in Public Policies, Strategies and Development at the Institute of Economics (PPED/IE) at UFRJ.

Gala Díaz Langou

Gala, who has been director of CIPPEC's Social Protection Program since 2016, is founder and member of the Global Coalition for Social Protection Floors, the Childhood Debt collective (Infancia en Deuda), the Equality Agenda initiative (Agenda Igualdad), Humanin Haus and is also Argentine delegate for the Women 20 (W20). As head of CIPPEC's Social Protection Program, Gala promoted research and public policy recommendations on poverty, childhood, employment, social security and gender economic inequalities. She has a comprehensive approach on all these issues, with special concern for the feasibility and sustainability of social policies and the convergence of macroeconomics with development strategies. In 2019 she gave the TED talk "Women who care", which anticipated the care-giving crisis derived from the COVID-19 pandemic. She holds a BA in International Studies from Torcuato Di Tella University, a Masters in Public Policy and Development Management from both San Martín University and Georgetown University, and completed postgraduate studies in International Integration, Development and Public Policy at FLACSO Argentina. She is a visiting professor of the Master in Public Policy at Torcuato Di Tella University. Gala has developed her entire professional career at CIPPEC.

Rafael Guerreiro Osório

Deputy Director of Studies and Social Policies He has a degree in Social Sciences from the University of Brasilia (1999), a master's degree in Sociology from the University of Brasilia (2003) and a doctorate in Sociology from the University of Brasilia (2009). At Ipea, he was a trainee (1999), scholarship holder and consultant (2000-2004), and since 2009 he has been a planning and research technician at the Directorate of Social Studies and Policies, where he has been coordinator of social security and social assistance studies and director. He was a researcher at the International Poverty Center (2004-2009) and research coordinator at the International Policy Center for Inclusive Growth (2014-2022).

Stephen Devereux

Stephen Devereux is a Professorial Fellow at the UK Institute of Development Studies, where he co-founded the Centre for the Social Protection and the Food Equity Centre. He holds a research chair at the University of the Western Cape in South Africa, exploring the linkages between food security and social protection. His books include 'Food Security in Sub-Saharan Africa', 'Social Protection in Africa', and 'Resilience and Food Security in a Food Systems Context'.

Saulo Ceolin

Saulo Ceolin is Coordinator-General for Food Security and Nutrition at the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Brazil. He has worked at the Brazilian Mission to the U.N. Rome-based Agencies (2004-2008) and as an advisor to the Director-General of FAO (2015-2017). He has also served as Deputy Consul-General of Brazil in Tokyo from 2018 to 2021 and has been a negotiator for Brazil at various environment and sustainable agriculture fora. In his current role, he co-chairs the G20 Task Force for the establishment of a Global Alliance against Hunger and Poverty.

SYNTHESIS OF RECOMMENDATIONS

Almir Nascimento

Graduated in Law from the Federal Fluminense University (1987). Career diplomat at the Ministry of Foreign Affairs (MRE) since 1992, with an emphasis on Public International Law. Full professor at the Rio Branco Institute in the discipline “Management and Administration in the MRE” (2016-2020). Master’s student in Public Administration at the University of Brasília. Served as Deputy Consul at the General Consulate of Brazil in Paris and headed the Trade Promotion Sector at the Brazilian Embassies in Asunción, Montevideo, Paramaribo, and Paris. From 2016 to 2020, he was the General Coordinator of Modernization at the MRE and, following Decree No. 10.021/2019, assumed the role of General Coordinator of Management and Governance. From December 2020 to May 2021, he was an Advisor at the Special Advisory for International Affairs of the Special Secretariat for Strategic Affairs of the Presidency of the Republic. On May 20, 2021, he was appointed Director of the Institute for Research on International Relations of the Alexandre de Gusmão Foundation.

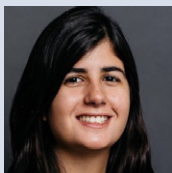

Clara Brenck

Adjunct Professor in the Department of Economic Sciences at the Federal University of Minas Gerais (Cedeplar/UFMG) and Associate Researcher at the Center for Research in Macroeconomics of Inequalities (Made/FEA-USP). She holds a PhD in economics from the New School for Social Research, a master’s degree in economics from FEA/USP and a bachelor's degree in economics from the Federal University of Minas Gerais. She is interested in macroeconomics, development, inequality and gender.

Maiara Folly

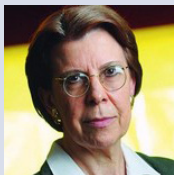

Maiara Folly is the Executive Director and Co-founder of Plataforma CIPÓ, a Brazil-based think tank focussing on issues related to climate, sustainable development and global governance reform. Folly is the Lead Co-Chair of the T20 Task Force on Sustainable climate action and inclusive just energy transitions.

Ana Saggiore Garcia

Assistant Professor at the Institute of International Relations at PUC-Rio. General Coordinator of the BRICS Policy Center. Professor of the Graduate Program in Social Sciences at the Federal Rural University of Rio de Janeiro. PhD in International Relations from IRI / PUC-Rio and Master in Political Science from the Free University of Berlin (Germany). Member of the editorial board of the Socialist Register (Canada). Vice-coordinator of the thematic area of International Political Economy of the Brazilian Association of International Relations (ABRI). Researcher at the Interdisciplinary Laboratory of International Relations Studies (LIERI / UFRRJ). Researcher at the Institute for Political Alternatives for the Southern Cone (PACS). She has publications in International Political Economy, Critical Theory, Gramsci, hegemony, imperialism, multinational companies, and South-South relations.

Vera Thorstensen

Professor at the São Paulo School of Economics at Fundação Getulio Vargas (FGV EESP). Coordinator of the Center for Global Trade and Investment - CCGI. Coordinator of the WTO Chair in Brazil. President of the Brazilian Committee on Technical Barriers to Trade at CONMETRO. Economic advisor to the Brazilian Mission at the WTO in Geneva from 1995 to 2010. Editor of the Geneva Charter of the Brazilian Mission from 2001 to 2008. President of the WTO Rules of Origin Committee from 2004 to 2010. Professor of Foreign Trade Policy at master's level at IELPO Barcelona (2009-2010), Sciences-Po Paris (2003-2008), IIE Lisbon (1990-2010). Visiting Professor at IDB Washington. He has a doctorate in Business Administration from Fundação Getulio Vargas - SP, economics area (1980); post-doctorate in International Economics from Harvard University (1983/84); master's degree at EAESP/FGV, finance area (1996) and bachelor's degree in Mathematics from USP (1972).

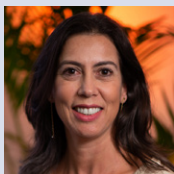

Bruno Bioni

Bruno Bioni is the Founding-Director of the Data Privacy, an intersection space between a Research Association and a School. He holds a PhD in Commercial Law and Master Degree in Civil Law from the University of São Paulo Law School. He is a full member of the Brazilian National Data Protection Council/CNPD and of the Advisory Group on AI, Data Protection and Misinformation of the Brazilian Electoral Superior Court. Previously, he was nominated to the Federal Senate Commission of Jurists on Artificial Intelligence in 2022-2023, responsible for proposing an AI Draft Bill. Bioni was a trainee at the European Data Protection Board/EDPB, in the context of the discussions of the General Data Protection Regulation - GDPR and of the modernization of the 108 International Convention on the Protection of Personal Data; he was a legal advisor to the Internet Steering.

Melina Risso

Melina Risso holds a doctorate and a master's degree in Public Administration and Government from the Getulio Vargas Foundation (FGV) and co-authored the book "Public Security to Turn the Game Around". She is currently research director at the Igarapé Institute and a trustee to various third sector organizations. Her work and research address different issues on the public agenda, including environmental crimes, money laundering, climate security, public safety, cities, governance and digital rights. Melina is a member of the National Council for Public Safety and Social Defense of the Ministry of Justice and Public Safety.

DELIVERY OF T20 BRASIL COMMUNIQUÉ TO REPRESENTATIVES FROM BRAZILIAN MINISTRIES OF FINANCE AND FOREIGN AFFAIRS, AND G20 SOCIAL

Antonio Cottas

Diplomat responsible for commercial, economic, and financial affairs of the Technical Group for Foreign Relations during the Governmental Transition - Nov/Dec 2022. Advisor in the General Coordination of Financial Affairs from 2008 to 2009; Advisor and interim Head of the Financial Policy Division from 2009 to 2010. Participated in discussions about the crisis within the G-20, IMF, World Bank, UNCTAD, OECD, WTO, and other institutions and forums. Organized Brazil's participation in the Doha Conference on Financing for Development (2008) and the UN Conference on the Financial Crisis (2009). Embassy of Brazil in Beijing: Head of the Commercial Sector (2010); Head of the Economic-Financial Sector (2011-2012). Brazilian Directorate at the IMF in Washington: Advisor to the chair led by Brazil (2012-2014). Co-responsible for discussions at the IMF on quotas, bilateral loans, and related topics, debates of the Independent Evaluation Office, administrative matters of the IMF and the Brazilian chair, G24, G20, in addition to regularly covering Article IV reports on various countries. Special Advisor in the Mayor's Office and the Secretariat for International and Federative Affairs of the São Paulo City Hall (2015). During unpaid leave for personal interests between 2015 and 2021, was responsible for the Tapera bookstore and the Institute for Diplomacy for Democracy. After the leave expired, returned to Itamaraty in 2021, under Carlos França, as Deputy Chief of the Canada and Caribbean Division. Governmental Transition - Technical Group for Foreign Relations - Nov/Dec 2022. Responsible for commercial, economic, and financial affairs of the Technical Group.

Gustavo Westmann

Gustavo Westmann is a diplomat and academic. He currently holds the position of diplomatic advisor to the General Secretariat of the Presidency of the Republic. In addition to his experience in the private sector, in different areas of the Brazilian Ministry of Foreign Affairs and the Brazilian Cooperation Agency, he has been head of the Economic and Commercial Sectors of the Brazilian Embassies in Italy, Indonesia and India. Westmann has published several articles and has been a guest lecturer at universities in Brazil and abroad. He has a degree in Law and International Relations, three master's degrees, the most recent from the University of Berkeley, and a doctorate in Foreign Policy from JGU in India.

Tatiana Berringer

Adjunct Professor (C3) of International Relations at the Federal University of ABC. Professor in the Postgraduate Program in World Political Economy (EPM) and the Master's Program in International Relations (PRI) at UFABC. PhD and MA in Political Science from Unicamp, BA in International Relations from UNESP - Franca (2007). She participated in a Missión de Travaille at the Université de la Lumière Lyon II as part of the Capes- Cofecub Project "Brazil and France in neoliberal globalization" (2014). She was a Visiting Scholar at the School of Oriental and African Studies (SOAS) in London (2016). She is the author of the book "The Brazilian bourgeoisie and foreign policy in the FHC and Lula governments" (Ed. Appris), translated (and expanded) into English by Brill Publisher under the title "Brazilian bourgeoisie and foreign policy".

Member of the group “Neoliberalism and Class Relations in Brazil”, linked to the Center for Marxist Studies (Cemarx). Participates in the CNPQ 2021 Universal Project - The political crisis, the new right, the state and social classes in Brazil. Coordinates the CAPES/DAAD Project “Sustainable development agenda for the Greater ABC region and German investments in value chains”. Coordinator of the Research Group “Foreign Policy and Social Classes” (CNPQ) and of FOMERCO’s Axis 5 - Social Classes, State and Regional Integration on the Periphery of the Capitalist System. He is a member of the Marxism and International Relations Studies Network (RIMA) and the International Relations Reflection Group (GRR). He was a member of the Political Council of the Tricontinental: Institute for Social Research (Brazil). Researches in the areas of Brazilian Foreign Policy, South American Integration and Contemporary International Political Economy. He is a member of the editorial committee of the journal Crítica Marxista and the publishing house Enunciado.

ORGANIZERS:

SPONSORED BY:

